

D, a man in his mid-twenties, came to the Self-Help Center explaining in his own words that he wanted to legally acknowledge his child and to establish the right for his child to inherit from him. We provided him information about the process of legitimation and he successfully represented himself to get that done.

We were happy to help this family!

