

P, a small business owner, contacted our center in need of legal information. She was recently misinformed about the guidelines & requirements for a food truck business. We referred her to the Georgia Bar website where she chose an attorney that she could afford.

We were delighted to serve this small business owner!

