

B, came to the self-help center daily throughout the summer to prepare for her custody case. The Navigators assisted her by showing her how to gather legal information through the Lexis database and library resources. At the end of the summer she won her case and gained full custody.

We offer our patrons legal information!

